This presentation will overview the deposition experience, the “rules” every witness should know, and issues the records manager should be prepared to tackle.

Ms. Panich, a shareholder in the national labor and employment boutique firm Ogletree Deakins, couples 30+ years of experience defending corporate entities in litigation with her practical experiences developing records retention policies and working with Records Managers. She develops record management programs, electronic discovery programs, and legacy data remediation programs for clients. She also advises clients and their litigation counsel on electronic discovery issues. She holds a J.D., summa cum laude, from the Indiana University School of Law – Bloomington.

Ogletree Deakins was founded in 1977. Today the firm has more than 430 attorneys in 34 locations across the U.S.A.
